IN THIS CATEGORY STUDENTS WILL ...

Study Western culture and civilization from ancient times to the present through historical accounts, literatures, philosophies, religions, and fine arts. Using methods of critical inquiry, students explore aspects of human nature, the shaping of thoughts and values, and their interrelations.

IT TAKES MORE THAN A MAJOR

Students need to be equipped with broad knowledge in a variety of areas, in addition to knowledge in a specific major, in order to gain the necessary skill set expected in real-world settings.

Employers agree that all students, regardless of their chosen field of study, should have educational experiences that teach them about building civic capacity, and broad knowledge about the liberal arts and sciences.

ADVISING NOTES

Students must take two Humanities courses; courses do not need to be taken in chronological order.

All LAC related student requests should be sent directly to the Provost’s Office.
